

1895-044 Chancery Causes: Minerva H. Jamison vs. John M. Jamison
Lee Co.

Baker, Orr

CA-Divorce

To the Honorable W. T. Miller, Judge of the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia:-

Humbly complaining^{ly} your oratrix, Minerva H. Jamison, would respectfully represent and shew unto your honor that on the day of April 1886, in Lee County, Virginia, she was married to one John M. Jamison, with whom she lived for months, when her said husband without cause willfully deserted and abandoned her to her great sorrow, distress and grief, ^{+ left the State + has remained and now is a nonresident thereof.} Your oratrix alleges that she made to her said husband a loving, true, faithful and dutiful wife; and that she did all ~~in~~ her power to prevent her said husband from thus leaving her to battle with life's difficulties ~~thus~~ alone in the world; and she further alleges that since the said abandonment he ~~has~~ never contributed in the least to her support and maintenance. She further alleges, that this abandonment by her said husband occurred for ^{years previous} more than three to the institution of this suit.

Your oratrix will now represent unto your honor that she is and ~~has~~ has been a resident of Lee County, for more than twelve months ~~in~~ last past.

Now, therefore, the object of this bill is to obtain a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and now existing between your oratrix and the said John M. Jamison; and being without remedy at law, she prays your honor's court of equity to take cognizance of this cause and render her the proper relief. To this end she prays that the said John M. Jamison ~~be~~ made the party defendant to this bill, and that he be required to answer the same, but not on ~~an~~ oath that being waived; and that upon a final hearing a decree be pronounced dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between your ~~or~~ oratrix and her said husband, and if mistaken in this her special prayer, she prays for general relief. May process issue, directed, &c.

Nov Term 1895 Decree
final O.B.P. 239

Minerva H. Jamison, Plaintiff

Against (In Chancery.

John M. Jamison, Defendant.

This cause, in which the Plaintiff appears to have proceeded against the Defendant, who is out of the Commonwealth, in the mode prescribed by law, ^a against absent defendants, and he still having failed to appear and answer, came on this day to be heard on the bill of the Plaintiff and the depositions of witnesses and was argued by counsel for the Plaintiff; on consideration ~~and~~ whereof, the Court being of opinion from the evidence that the desertion of the Plaintiff by the Defendant was wilful and without just cause, and that the abandonment occurred more than three years before the institution of this suit, doth adjudge, order and decree that the marriage heretofore contracted and solemnized between the Plaintiff Minerva H. Jamison and the Defendant John M. Jamison, be, and the same is hereby dissolved; and that the said Minerva H Jamison be for ever divorced from the said John M. Jamison; and that the Plaintiff recover from the Defendant her costs, by her expended in the prosecution of this suit. And the cause is stricken from the docket.

The depositions of James W. Orr and William A Baker, taken at the Law Office of Orr, Blankenship & Ewing, in the town of Jonesville, County of Lee, and state of Virginia, on this the 26th day of October 1895, to be read as evidence in the above styled cause in which there has been an Order of Publication against the Defendant. Said suit now pending in the Circuit Court of Lee County, Virginia. Said depositions being taken before H. C. Joslyn, a Justice of the Peace, in and for Lee County, Virginia.

Present: Counsel for the Plaintiff.

Said William A. Baker, a witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes as follows: I am well acquainted with the Plaintiff in this suit and live in Jonesville, where she resides, and where she was born and raised; I was also acquainted with the Defendant, who lived in Jonesville, a few years; I don't remember just when he left here, but I suppose it was about the year 1886, or 1887, soon after they were reported to have been married, and I have not seen him in this country since he left, and it is my understanding that he lives in Cincinnati, Ohio, or has been living there. The Plaintiff has resided in Jonesville all the time since the departure of the Defendant, ~~except~~ ^{except} a short trip to Kentucky about 1887, but I do not know whether she went on a visit or meant to reside there, any way she did not stay long and has been residing here since her return; during which time she has had the respect and confidence of the people of the community, and still retains the same so far as I have ever heard. The abandonment of the Plaintiff by the defendant was without any sufficient cause so far as I know or have ever heard. And further this deponent does not say.

W. A. Baker

James W. Orr, another witness of lawful age being duly sworn deposes and says: I am well acquainted with the Plaintiff, and have known her nearly all her life; she lived at my house for a number of years rather as one of the family before her marriage to the Defendant; I was present and saw them married in Jonesville, Virginia, at the house of Mr. C. A. Russell; I know the fact that the Defendant abandoned his said wife soon after their marriage and left this country, and as was reported went to Cincinnati, Ohio, where he probably yet resides, and he has never returned since his departure that I know of or have heard of, and his said wife has resided here all the while since he left except she took a short trip to Kentucky, and she now resides in Jonesville, where she is engaged in dress-making, and she has the confidence and respect of the community so far as I know or have ever heard; and I am of the opinion that the abandonment of her by her said husband was without any sufficient cause on her part. The Plaintiff has been a resident of this county and state for more than one year preceding the bringing of this suit. And further this deponent saith not.

James W. Orr.

Virginia, Lee County, to wit:-

I, Henry C. Joslyn, a Justice of the Peace for Lee County, Virginia, do hereby certify that the foregoing depositions of W. A. Baker and James W. Orr, were duly taken, subscribed and sworn to before me at the time and place and for the purposes in the caption mentioned. Given under my hand this the 26th day of October 1895.
